WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 2019

Can We Talk About the Street?

Building Support for Controversial Projects

271 W. 3rd Street, Rm. 203, Wichita, KS 67202

2:00 - 3:00 PM CST

DESCRIPTION

Proposing solutions that call for reallocating roadway space can stir up controversy. This webinar will examine innovative approaches to building support for innovation in the public right-of-way. How do we manage the conversation in a way that both educates and inspires our stakeholders?

PARKING & ACCESSIBILITY

Free accessible parking is available in the lot to the east of the building, with additional PAID spaces found in the metered lot to the north and in the EPIC Center parking garage to the south. Bicycles may be locked in the rack at the front of the building. The nearest BikeShareICT rack is 1 block east on the corner of Main and 3rd Street.

UPCOMING WEBINARS

Continuing Education Certificates will be available after each webinar:

- October 16: If We Build it Will They Come? Estimating Demand for Biking and Walking
- November 20: Aging in Place: Designing Communities to Support Mobility
- December 18: Education and Encouragement: Bringing the Right People Together
